Definite Statements Needed as Bases for Loans.

Necessity of Agreeing Upon Fixed Sum is Shown.

Germany Probably Can Pay Twenty Billions, View.

Plans on which modifications have been proposed.

NO TIME FIXED. The financial experts expected a final determination on reparations would be reached today or tomorrow, but no time has been fixed as to when the council will complete its reply. The President told friends he hoped to see the treaty in early next week, but he could not say definitely as everything depended on getting the reply complete before making the trip.

Although a general principle is important in the covenant of the League of Nations provided that the limitation of armaments of the Allied and associated powers should be a matter for subsequent examination by the league, the council of four fixed in the draft treaty the various strengths of the armies which all the states inheriting parts of the Hapsburg monarchy should maintain.

This invoked one of the principal protests at last week's plenary sessions of the peace conference. The Jugo-Slavs, in particular, declared that it was unfair to limit their armaments and leave their great rival, Italy, with complete freedom in this respect.

POLES FEAR WAR. The Poles, who are firmly convinced that they may be compelled to go to war with Germany for the purpose of defending their independence and do not wish to see themselves and their natural allies restricted in the means of defense, also demanded elimination of this provision.

The Czech-Slovaks are satisfied with the principal territorial points of the Austrian peace treaty. M. Drees, the Czech-Slovak foreign minister, has called the treaty the territorial basis, he said, showed that the council of four had decided in favor of the Czech-Slovak claims to the historic provinces of Bohemia and Moravia.

"We are particularly pleased with the clauses by which national life is secured for the Czech-Slovak minorities, especially in Vienna."

FINANCIAL INTERESTS. The necessity for the various nations, especially France, to make definite statements to banking interests concerning the funds likely to be received in reparation payments, in order to arrange for loans, is apparently affecting the council of four's consideration of the treaty, and it is expected to result in fixing a definite reparation sum.

The failure of any plan for an international pooling of war debts, it is pointed out here, is forcing the individual nations to prepare to meet the bankers on a strictly business basis.

The apparent influence which fundamental financial rules are having upon the movement for changes in the reparation section of the treaty is reinforced by the opinion of the financiers of virtually all the Allied countries that the section is unsatisfactory. In the plans being discussed to improve it by naming a definite reparation sum, 100,000,000,000 gold marks, or $25,000,000,000, is the sum quite generally discussed as likely to be adopted. It has been agreed upon by the Economic and Financial experts before the treaty was drawn. The amount Germany probably could pay.

control. For that reason, they were reluctant tonight to express an opinion as to the legislation that would be necessary.

BURLESON'S STATEMENT. "The President having recommended the return of the wire systems and the control of the operating companies with certain legislation designed to stabilize their operation," Mr. Burleson said, "and the Senate Committee having taken action looking to their immediate return, and the House committee in its hearings on proposed legislation having indicated concurrence in the suggested immediate return with or without legislation so recommended, I feel it my duty to now return to the actual control of operations to the companies."

"Some days ago I directed the necessary orders to be prepared to accomplish this and have today issued same. These orders do not affect questions of rates and finance with which the Congress may determine to deal. The rates now in force and the financial relations between the government and the companies, and the order of October 2, 1918, prohibiting discrimination because of union affiliation will continue unless the Congress in its wisdom may decide to change them or the 'emergency' is terminated by the proclamation of peace."

By the action now taken, however, the wire companies resume actual control of operations of their respective property, and are free to formulate and put into effect their own policies unrestricted by government control, which is to continue in any case, but a few weeks, and this will be able to prepare themselves for a complete resumption of the management of their property. It will be necessary for each company to so keep its accounts during the continuance of government control that its books may be closed on the day government control ends in order that a full and accurate statement may be promptly made when it is called on for same."

KOONS ATTACKS POSTAL. The conduct of the Postal Telegraph Company in handling government business at Washington in the trying period of war was enough to justify the taking over of telegraph and telephone systems, Assistant Postmaster-General Koons told the House Interstate Commerce Committee today at a hearing which closed just before issuance of orders by the Postmaster-General relinquishing operation of the wire properties.

Mr. Koons declared if other wire companies had adopted the same policy as the Postal, it would have strangled the government in the conduct of the war.

"I do not know what was in the mind of the President, or what facts he was before him," Mr. Koons said, "at the time the properties were taken over. But the country was engaged in war and the facts recently come to us as the result of an investigation by a post-office inspector, the actions, in my opinion, of the Postal Telegraph Company alone in handling government business out of the capital city and at other places in the United States at a crucial period through which this country was passing, would have justified the taking over of these properties."

Postmaster-General Burleson's announcement yesterday that the telephone and telegraph lines will be returned at once to their private owners will in all probability cancel the general call for a strike at 5 p. m. on June 14 of 60,000 telephone operators and 60,000 other members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, according to local union officials who were interviewed last night. The officials said that they were trying to induce local telephone operators to join the union.

A meeting is scheduled tonight at Labor Temple for the women operators, and men operators attend tonight meeting last night. "Fighting Julia" O'Connor of Boston, president of the telephone workers' department of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who addressed a meeting of the operators, left yesterday for Atlantic City to attend the convention of the American Federation of Labor. R. E. Swaine of San Francisco, Pacific Coast chief of the Electrical Workers' Union, is in Los Angeles in charge of the organization work. Mr. Swaine called the telephone operators to join the union to comment on the proposed strike situation.

Friction between the Electrical Workers and Postmaster-General Burleson has been increasing ever since the government operation began. The unions claimed that "Burleson-made rules" were enforced against union electrical workers throughout the country, and that men had been discharged because they belonged to a union. The strike which National Secretary Charles P. Ford of the union announced at Springfield, O., was directed against Burleson and government operation methods, and therefore its cause disappears with the disappearance of government operation.

Work of organizing for the general strike has been going on for three months throughout the country. There are 6000 telephone girls on the Pacific Coast and 4000 electrical workers.

Despite the statement of Miss O'Connor that Los Angeles telephone girls are enthusiastically joining the union, a number of operators said yesterday that of the 1500 operators in Los Angeles less than one-third had joined and these are scattered among the smaller outside exchanges. The claim was made that in the larger exchanges few if any girls had joined and the union was satisfied with the wages and working conditions. The union is using as a slogan to induce the girls to join the union, that there is to be a fight to be waged here in the near future for $4 a week instead of $14 a week. This issue is distinct from the general strike which has been called as a protest against government operation.

C. F. Mason, local manager of the Southern California Telephone Company, said last night that he had received no official notification as yet that the telephone telegraph lines are to be handed back for operation to their owning companies.

JURY DISMISSES RED. Seattle Court Finds L.W.W. Not Guilty of Anarchy.

SEATTLE, June 5.—James Bruce, alleged Industrial Worker of the World, was found by a jury here today not guilty of the charge of criminal anarchy. The charge was placed against Bruce as a result of his activity during the general strike here in February.

Several scores of alleged Industrial Workers of the World, who were in the courtroom, expressed great delight and showered Bruce with congratulations when the jury announced its verdict.

In his instructions to the jury yesterday, Superior Judge French, in whose court Bruce was tried, described criminal anarchy as the overthrow of organized government.

Judge French told the jury members that they had a right to find Bruce guilty if they believed him to be a member of the L.W.W. and if they found that the organization's doctrine was anarchy.

The prosecution based its contention on a Supreme Court decision, which was said to rule that members of the L.W.W. were criminal anarchists.

Bruce was arrested February 20, 1919, with other radical leaders, whose trials are yet to come. The Bruce trial was the first.

Prosecution Attorney Fred C. Brown said today he intended to go through the twenty-seven other charges of criminal anarchy on which the indictment was based, and ask for the dismissal of all cases wherein conditions are similar to those of the Bruce case.

ST. FRANCISCO, June 5.—Frederick W. Fair, former United States Senator from Nevada.

Henshaw gave this testimony in connection with a recent application filed here by Wesley Crothers, neighbor of Fair, to rescind the decision on allegations that Henshaw had accepted such a bribe to influence his decision.

back without some protective legislation. To turn them back at pre-war rates would be unfortunate for the business of the country, and it is for some of them to do business.

Enactment of legislation which would compel all wire companies to accept government and all other business offered to them, would be to take the cream of it, and it is urged by Mr. Koons, who declared that the Western Union and its own property of unprofitable traffic. It was his belief, he said, that every company should handle business everywhere, that if the government could retain control of the telegraph, the telephone and the radio, they could be returned to their owners without a deficit.

regard to whether their people are favorable or opposed to the bill.

A report recently published to the effect that Wilson had control of both legislative bodies, and the measure, as it stands now, had his approval and the approval of Secretary of the Interior Lane, it is understood, if he does now oppose this legislation it will show the extent to which European environment has caused him to change his mind in another direction.

Should Mr. Wilson fall to go before Congress immediately on his return home with some extremely revolutionary proposals there are a number of his more level-headed Democratic advisers who will sleep better of night than at the present time.

HOW FAR WILL HE GO? Just how far the President would seek to extend such a policy, is the query which naturally arises. If he is actually thinking seriously along this line, it is easy to contemplate his first move as being to discourage further consideration of the bill on which hearings soon will begin in the Public Lands Committee of the House to provide for the leasing of coal, oil and phosphate lands. He might go farther and hold that the water problem is so closely related to fuel production that any further plan of power legislation should be stopped. The water power bill now before Congress was framed when the Democratic party had control of both legislative bodies, and the measure, as it stands now, had his approval and the approval of Secretary of the Interior Lane, it is understood, if he does now oppose this legislation it will show the extent to which European environment has caused him to change his mind in another direction.

FIGHT NOW FOR RATIFICATION.

Extra Legislative Sessions for Women to Vote.

May not Secure Action Before Election Next Year.

Contest for Rights Started During Revolution.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, June 5.—California, Oregon and Washington will lead in the States twenty-eight of them—that are expected speedily to ratify the constitutional amendment passed by the Senate yesterday with only eight Republican votes against it.

The other States listed by the amendment are Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Idaho, Kansas, Arizona, Montana, Nevada, New York, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Michigan, Illinois, Nebraska, Rhode Island, North Dakota, Wisconsin, Indiana, Maine, Minnesota, Missouri, Tennessee, Arkansas and Texas.

Special sessions of the Legislatures in many of these States and others will be necessary if the election of 1920 is to find the women of the country casting the ballot for President.

In most of the States named women vote now and they believe that the necessary special sessions of the Legislatures can be secured without delay.

LOOK TO LEGISLATURES.

With the fight in Congress won, advocates of woman suffrage today turned their attention to the various State Legislatures, three-fourths of which must ratify the constitutional amendment before victory can be won.

Although supporters of the measure are confident of final success there is a division of opinion among leaders as to whether the ratification by the States of the proposed amendment can be secured in time for the women all over the country to vote in the November election.

Few State Legislatures now are in session and many will not hold their sessions until after the election.

Chief opposition to ratification is expected to come from the southern States because of the entailed enfranchisement of negroes.

Senator Gay of Louisiana is opposing the resolution yesterday presented by the State Suffrage League to ratify the amendment thus causing its defeat.

LEGISLATURES IN SESSION.

Among the Legislatures now in session are Illinois, which adjourns in June, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts (will adjourn next month), Wisconsin (which has no adjournment), Florida (next election must intervene before ratification).

Ohio's Legislature convened last Monday for an indefinite period.

Michigan will adjourn in July, Louisiana before fall, Jersey will certainly have a special session this fall, Iowa has one in January, Maine in October, Kentucky, South Carolina and Mississippi meet in January, Virginia in February and Maryland in 1920.

LAST ACT AT CAPITOL.

Vice-President Marshall today signed the woman suffrage constitutional amendment resolution in the presence of Chairman Watson of the Senate Woman Suffrage Committee, and other Senators and representatives of the suffrage movement.

The Vice-President's signature was the last act upon the resolution at the Capitol.

Letting his signature yesterday.

In recognition of the fifty-year campaign that association and members of Congress and the gold pen was presented to the national association. The women chosen to represent the association were Mrs. Maud Woodpark of Massachusetts, Mrs. William C. Wood of Washington, Mrs. Ida Hunter Harper of New York, Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton of Ohio, Mrs. Mary G. Hay and Miss Marie Shuler of New York.

STARTED IN REVOLUTION.

When the bill was signed last night in the House and today in the Senate it ended a fight for suffrage for women that began in the time of the American revolution and was given tremendous impetus by the introduction of a bill for suffrage by Senator Bennett of California in 1878.

Women voted under several of the colonial governments. During the revolution women demanded to be included in the government. Abigail Adams wrote her husband, John Adams: "If women are not represented in the government, they will not be considered as citizens."

TO SETTLE PARIS STRIKE.

Five Things Every Baby Needs

The health of a baby depends upon five things: His food, his clothing, his sleep, his bath and his surroundings. To have each of these adjusted to meet his need is to give your child the best possible chance for his life and health.

Every requisite for healthy babyhood is within reach of the average mother in her own home if she knows how to utilize it. This knowledge has been set into concise form in a bulletin prepared by the United States Public Health Service for the mothers of the nation. The Los Angeles Times desires to place a copy of this bulletin, free of charge, in the hands of every mother who reads this paper.

ITALY TO FAVOR PLAN FOR FIUME

Certain to Dominate Council to Govern City.

Mandate Over Albania is not at All Desired.

France is Now Blamed for Wilson Proclamation.

BY ARTHUR E. MANN.

ROME, June 5, via Paris June 4.—"Most American people don't know anything about Fiume; the rest don't give a damn."

This is not the raving of an anti-American Italian but what American Congressmen who arrived in Paris shortly after the publication of President Wilson's Fiume proclamation are reported to have told one of the American peace commissioners.

This is also what the people believe, and in connection with such an attitude they cannot understand the great amount of what they say is misplaced Jugo-Slav sympathy in the United States. There has been far too much idealization of the Jugo-Slavs, they tell you here.

However, some Italians who have been studying the plan reported from Paris to make Fiume an independent city are beginning to send a ray of light into the darkness of the conference opposition. If the present plan of governing the city is carried out, they explain, then in the council of two Italians, one Hungarian, one Hungarian and one Jugo-Slav the Italians are sure to have a perpetual majority, for the Fiume members are certain always to vote with the Italians and most probably the Hungarians also. Such a situation would probably save the port of Trieste from any outburst of competition from Fiume, which is what the Italians have been fearing of the latter city is made a free port or given to the Jugo-Slavs.

MANDATE NOT DESIRED.

These same Italians, however, are not very keen on alleged compensation for the loss of Fiume by substitution of a mandate over Albania. This, they declare, will cost the government millions a year for administration for which outlay there will be little return. And they are not particularly anxious to assume responsibility for the good behavior of the Albanian natives. They tell the story here of the Chicago representative from a big electrical construction company who went into business prospecting in Albania during the reign of the German prince, William of Wied. When he returned to Rome and was asked what things Albania most needed he replied:

"Jails with schools, jails with baths—and then more jails."

Since the first mad days here after President Wilson's Fiume note was published there has been a tendency for thinking people to get a surer perspective of just what was behind the issuance of the document.

STARK FRENCH INFLUENCE.

These here who really study the aims of the peace conference tell us they are convinced the note had the support of the British and French at Paris although unfortunately from the American standpoint it was signed only by Mr. Wilson. It has been hinted to me here it was even French influence which led to publication of the note at the time it appeared. In fact, some Italians are becoming a bit suspicious of what they seem to feel a strange opposition to their aims.

All this highly complicated and mysterious politics a kind American and Americans are not used to, some say it is Franco-Italian competition in the Mediterranean and elsewhere cropping up again.

ITALY NOT SATISFIED.

It appears more certain every day, however, that Italy, with the exception of the enemy powers, is going to be among the least satisfied with the terms of settlement unless there is a radical change in the treatment she is getting at Paris.

This war for her was to be the real one for realizing the full her program of national reunion, which has been uppermost in the minds of the people since the birth of modern Italy. Now she feels her peace is going to leave her considerably short of such realization, she also feels this is partly due to lack of general knowledge among the Allies and in America of the sacrifices she made for the war—4,000 dead, a higher percentage of her population than any of the other Allies; 244,000 tons of shipping lost, higher percentage of her total merchant marine than any of the Allies, and with an increase of 19,754,000, four times the pre-war population.

These hard and rough figures should convince our Allies, the Italians say, our war effort and sacrifice were more than enough to entitle us to plead with them for as much consideration in the peace settlement as they demand and obtain.

MEASURE OF REFORM FOR IRELAND BRIGHT.

LONDON, June 4.—The Daily News prints the following from an Irish correspondent:

"There has been a vast amount of speculation regarding the intentions of the government toward Ireland and the prevailing idea is that the government intends to embark on a larger policy of repression."

"I have spoken to many from an authority of very high standing in regard to Irish politics, but whose name I can not in a position to disclose, that the prospect of a large measure of reform for Ireland is very bright."

"It is a reward for his attitude with regard to the claims of Ireland to be heard at the Peace Conference, the authority to whom I allude states that President Wilson has obtained very definite undertakings from the British minister that a wide measure of reform for Ireland will at once be taken in hand."

AMPICO

Duplicates Godowsky's Exact Art

The AMPICO REPRODUCING PIANO is the ONLY scientific means by which Godowsky's technique, or the technique of ANY OTHER artist, can be faithfully reproduced.

It is equally true that the KNABE PIANO itself is the ONLY instrument which possesses the inherent tonal qualities essential for the identical duplication of Godowsky's original renditions.

Godowsky plays exclusively on the KNABE PIANO, and all his Ampico records are made SOLELY on the KNABE.

The KNABE PIANO, independent of the wonderful Ampico Reproducing action, is universally recognized as "The World's Best"—it has been so recognized for generations—and today is more perfect than ever before, the result of constant advances in the science and art of piano building.

The combination of the KNABE PIANO with the AMPICO represents perfection of tone, with perfection of expression.

The KNABE Ampico is three instruments in one—primarily a REPRODUCING Piano—second, a piano with all the appearances and characteristics of the regular KNABE piano itself—and, incidentally, an instrument that permits the freest possible individual expression.

Godowsky and the KNABE Ampico

Sensation at City Last

GODOWSKY, the living, visible, played with Godowsky the invisible invoked

In the minds of all who heard this amazing scientific and musical demonstration there was no distinction between the artist and his

whether expressed by the living master's own fingers touching the keys, or by the marvelous invention which records and reproduces his every touch, with the exactness with which a photographic plate receives and holds the faintest impression.

There were many who said, in advance of this recital, that the KNABE Ampico Reproducing Piano might be able to give a good semblance of Godowsky's playing, indistinguishable from the original perhaps when not closely compared. But it was predicted that a direct comparison between the actual hand playing of the artist and the reproductions of his playing by the KNABE Ampico Reproducing Piano would clearly expose the impossibility of imitating all of the subtle brilliancies and tone colorings of the living artist's work.

But—although we recognized what a critical test was to be made in attempting to duplicate the infinitely complex playing of the greatest of all masters of piano technique, we knew the Knabe Ampico. We were confident.

When Godowsky played Chopin's "Ballade A Flat" with ravishing splendor that night, we thought, after all, how could ANYTHING short of the divine touch of genius itself reproduce such magnificent harmonies!

Then came the test—the test breathlessly and skeptically awaited. The KNABE Ampico began to play the "Ballade" from a record of Mr. Godowsky's.

The audience sat stunned, baffled—listening in profound silence to this strange performance—GODOWSKY PLAYING WITHOUT TOUCHING THE KEYS. It was uncanny. The great audience hardly breathed. Minutes passed in silence more eloquent than shouts. Then, the full significance of this marvel dawned upon them, the thousands present broke forth in a tumult of applause.

A miracle had been witnessed—an event had taken place that marked a new chapter in the history of musical science.

What had been heard was recognized as the most important musical achievement since the first piano was created.

THE GENIUS OF MAN HAD FOUND A WAY TO SAVE AND TO REPRODUCE AGAIN AND AGAIN FOR POSTERITY, THE VERITABLE LIVING TONES JUST AS THEY ARE ORIGINALLY PRODUCED BY THE FINGERS OF THE ARTIST.

HERE WAS AMAZING PROOF! THE

NEW REPUBLIC STAYS GERMAN.

Peace Conference Leaders are Ignorant of Import.

Some Favor a Similar Disruption in Bavaria.

Orderly Governments Necessary for Europe.

(BY CABLE—REUTERS DISPATCH)

PARIS, June 5.—American, British and French Peace Conference leaders profess still to be ignorant of what importance is attachable to the new Rhenish republic, and are unwilling to discuss a development which testimony might prove to be illusory. Elsewhere, the fact is sagaciously debated, opinions thereon differing widely. The first reaction of the French was unfavorable, for suspicion of all things German is so deep rooted that it was feared the Rhenish movement was merely a gesture in an attempt to escape a share of the responsibilities of the war.

Then it was learned that the new republic would continue to form a part of the Bundesrat, which precluded some change in feeling, for it seemed to indicate that the Rhenish republic only desired freedom from Prussian overlordship, while remaining nationally German.

FOR GERMAN DISRUPTION.
The Rhenish republic is acclaimed by those who hitherto have bitterly criticized the peace treaty for "continuing the work of Bismarck." That they are setting the seal on united Germany, where an every chance has been taken to weaken Prussian control of the country.

This section would welcome similar disruptive action in Bavaria, Saxony, etc., and is ready even to see a slight softening of peace terms to such new units, provided the burden fell accordingly heavier on Prussia.

SOCIALISTS OPPOSE IT.

The Socialists, including the official Socialists, violently oppose any Allied support of the Rhenish republic, declaring: First, that those who proclaimed it were during the war the spokesmen of Chauvinism, pan-Germanism and annexationism. Second, they are in a rage because the Rhenish republic is no longer the empire's head, led to separatism. Third, the Rhenish republic is a danger in the possibility of a separatist republic in Germany, according to the protection of foreign military authorities. Fourth, the Rhenish movement is only a disguised reaction to pan-Germanism.

Between these there is a mass who are unwilling to make up their minds until developments show the growth of the movement, yet are inclined vaguely to favor anything which would mean German disorder with consequent failure to make reparations and create other political dangers. One of the ablest liberal Frenchmen, declaring he spoke for a growing number of his countrymen, said to The Times:

DISORDER MEANS DISASTER.
"For many reasons, some idealistic, some, perhaps, selfish, an increasing number of Frenchmen realize that we must have an orderly government and a contented people in Germany if Europe is to be rebuilt. Disorder in Germany as well as in Russia would not only be a disaster to Europe, but a disaster to the world, and would mean an unspeakable European disaster."

Moreover the dismemberment of Austria, though generally welcomed, meant such complications as to make offer to the peace conference practically unsolvable problems, and anything approaching the dismemberment of Germany would be fifty times worse because it would add to conditions which are already making Europe to death. If the Rhenish action is the first step toward disorder we ought not to support it, but if it means merely the return of part of the German empire to conditions of personal freedom which were impossible under Prussian rule, then all liberals can applaud it."

CONFERENCE SKEPTICAL.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
PARIS, June 4.—Proclamation of a Rhenish republic in Wiesbaden has been met with skepticism in American peace conference circles, which thus far have not taken the situation seriously and profess unwillingness to do so until proof is forthcoming that the movement has some broader foundation than now apparent.

ANARCHISTS LOSE IN DEPORTATION FIGHT.

(REUTERS DISPATCH.)
BOSTON, June 5.—A group of leading New England anarchists lost their fight yesterday against being deported when Judge Aldrich, in the United States District Court, denied their petitions for writs of habeas corpus.

The men to be deported are Luigi Galleani, editor of an anarchist paper in Lyon; Giuseppe Primati, Bridgewater; Ernesto R. Pirelli of New London, Ct.; Giuseppe Holary, East Boston; Tommaso Mazzanti, Hyde Park; Vincenzo De Lecco, Alford; Francesco De Santis, Boston; Giuseppe Sanchini, New Britain, Ct.; Alphonse Fagnoli, Boston; Raffaele Shidani, Lyon, and Irma Sanchini, of New Britain, Ct. Galleani is said to have been arrested under the Smoot Trading Act and fined $250. Sanchini was sentenced to a year's imprisonment for failing to register under the Selective Service Act.

The men admitted, it is said, they were anarchists, but assert they did not advocate violence against organized government. They were termed "philosophical anarchists" by their attorneys.

The men are mostly Italians.

UNIVERSITY TO PROSPER.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENT.)
REDLANDS, June 5.—V. E. Duke, president of the University of Redlands, has returned from Denver, where he attended the northern Baptist convention. At the convention it was decided to start a five-year financial programme for $100,000,000 of which amount $20,000,000 is to be for educational purposes. Redlands is to receive $1,125,000 of this for the University of Redlands.

L. A. Roadway of Pasadena, was made a member of the National Educational Committee. He is a trustee of the university.

The Mission of Swift & Company

Swift & Company has become one of the large businesses of the world through continuing to meet the growing needs of a nation and a world.

Society has a right to ask how the increasing responsibilities and opportunities for usefulness which go with such growth are being used by the men who direct its affairs—and the men have the right to answer:

To promote the production of live stock and perishables and increase the food supply;

To reach more people with more and better meat;

To make a fair competitive profit, in order to reimburse the 25,000 shareholders for the use of their capital, and to provide for the future development of the business;

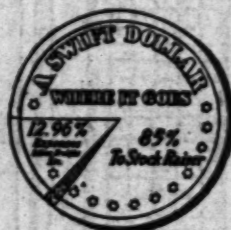

To reduce to a minimum the costs of preparing and distributing meat and to divide the benefits of efficiency with producer and consumer;

To live and let live, winning greater business only through greater usefulness, with injury to nothing but incompetency, inefficiency, and waste; to deal justly, fairly, and frankly with all mankind.

These are the purposes and motives of the men who direct the policies and practices of Swift & Company.

TO ELECT NEW SCHOOL BOARD.

Pasadena Voters are Aroused Over Election Result.

Twelve High School Cadets to Get Officers' Training.

Crown City Officials Affirm Finding Against Detective.

PARADENA, June 5.—Pasadena will hold a school election tomorrow, for the election of two members of the Board of Education for the Pasadena district. There are four candidates: George R. Bickley, at present president of the school board, and Clayton R. Taylor, Charles P. Spining and Thurston H. Pratt, who are not now on the board. Continuation of the so-called "child welfare" work in the schools and elimination of Supt. J. M. Rhodes are issues that have resulted in a lively interest in the election.

CADETS TO PRESIDENT. Twelve Pasadena high school cadets instead of one will go to the Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps camp at the Presidio. One cadet was allotted to the local school at first. The school authorities and the citizens felt that the cadets in the test drills, will get the trip and training: Clayton Atkinson, Arnold McCord, Theodore Sealey, Robert Ashcroft, Edwin Thayer, Kenneth Taber, Henry Staats, Walter Bryte, Harold Archibald, Robert Garber, Lowell Trautman and Kenneth Cist.

BABY IS ABANDONED. An 8-month-old white baby boy was found abandoned in a vacant lot on South Fair Oaks avenue here today by Mrs. L. Leshner, 244 South Pasadena avenue. She was passing by and heard the deserted infant's cries. She took the child to a house close by and the city authorities were notified. Mrs. Emma Speer, city mother, took charge of the infant, placing it in the day nursery. Thus far all efforts of the authorities to learn the identity of the child and that of its parents have been in vain. The child was shabbily dressed and there was nothing on the clothing or the basket in which the baby was found to give a clue, except a sheet of a Kansas City newspaper which was spread over the basket.

NO PENNY SHORTAGE. Pasadena banks have been deluged with pennies brought in by well-meaning persons who think there is a penny shortage in Pasadena. The banks today issued appeals to the public, and especially to women who have been bringing in hoarded pennies, not to turn in any more pennies to them in the belief that they are relieving a stringency. The banks say there are plenty of pennies here. The last week tellers have been obliged to spend much valuable time counting and exchanging for silver the accumulated pennies offered them.

AMERICANIZATION CLASS. The Americanization graduation class in Pasadena this year is three times as large as that of 1917. Americanization classes are held during the year at the Garfield school and the commencement will be held next Thursday evening at the Neighborhood Club House. There will be

FLAMES ATTRACT BUGS IN LEGION.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

BAKERSFIELD, June 5.—Winging their way to death in a flaming torch 150 feet high, black clouds of grasshoppers and every variety of winged bug with a fondness for bright lights are making their way at night to the great gas well on fire in the West Side oil fields of this county. Towns and villages within a radius of forty miles have been cleared of the insects, attracted away from street lights by the distant flaming spectacle.

DETECTIVE STILL OUT.

The City Commission today conducted a hearing, behind closed doors, in the case of former Police Detective Sergeant Edward A. Chute whom the commission dismissed from the city's service last year. Chute asked for the hearing following his dismissal. The dismissal was the result of a charge from the Police Jury that Chute had committed a burglary here three years ago. Lewis was brought here today and testified that he knew the burglar and that he had a share in the robbery. At the conclusion of the hearing the City Commission affirmed its decision dismissing Chute.

SAYS OCEAN FLIGHT IS A POSSIBILITY.

COMMANDER OF ROCKWELL FIELD BELIEVES IN MODERN FLYING MACHINES.

VENICE, June 5.—Commander A. J. Hachler of Rockwell field today, in communication to Thomas H. Ince, who has deposited a prize of $50,000 for the first aviator to fly from the aviation field at Venice to Australia, declared that the flight is feasible and absolutely within the reach of aviators of today. He said that the only drawback there could possibly be would be the difficulty of carrying fuel during the whole length of the journey, but that he is fully convinced that the modern airplane is capable of neutralizing any difficulty in that line.

Mr. Ince, in company with Mayor A. E. Coles of Venice, mapped out the territory between the Windward and the Seaside center street pier as the official "hopping off" place for the sea plane. It was also decided today that the time of the aviator's would be taken from the water's edge.

WANT A GOLD MINE?

Supervisors at Riverside Have One For Sale Cheap.

RIVERSIDE, June 5.—The Good Hope mine, located on the Perris-Eleone highway and famous as a producer of gold dust, is now being sold for taxes. The most important output of the mine in recent years has been the motion picture film depicting Wild West scenes which had the Good Hope for their setting. The Board of Supervisors have received two offers to date, one from Hook Bros. of Perris, who are willing to take it over for $250, and one from Judge Carter of Eleone, who is willing to take a chance on investing $50 in the derelict. A company was organized about ten years ago to reopen the mine, but without success, as is evidenced by the fact that the taxes delinquent now total $2500.

HIGHEST HONORS.

San Diego Boy Quits Naval School at Head of His Class.

RAN DIEGO, June 4.—Wesley McEl, Hagar, of this city, is said to be the first boy ever entered from the enlisted personnel of the navy to attain first honors at Annapolis. He has led his class ever since entering the naval academy. He is a graduate of the San Diego High School, where he won fame as a debater.

SANTA ANA LICENSES.

SANTA ANA, June 5.—The following marriage licenses have been issued here: Joseph P. Leroy, 41, and Marie C. O'Shannessy, 47, both of Los Angeles; John M. Mangold, 35, and Bertha Weiss, 35, both of Santa Ana; Rol B. Griffith, 48, and Gertrude Athey, 45, both of Los Angeles; George R. Farrington, 45, and Annie T. Riggins, 32, both of Long Beach; Sydney H. Rowell, 25, and Florence P. Chidy, 19, both of Los Angeles; Yerby W. Reynolds, 44, and Mayme C. Sprattley, 37, both of Long Beach; Henry J. Brown, 30, and Irene L. C. Mimmier, 22, both of Los Angeles; Alexander McCracken, 35, and Nettie Anderson, 27, both of Sherman.

DRAW COLOR LINE.

POMONA, June 5.—Where and when shall the color line be drawn in the park plunge? This weighty question occupied a considerable portion of the time at a meeting of the City Council today. The result was an order to the City Attorney to draft an ordinance setting aside one day of each week, probably Thursday, at which time the park plunge will be open exclusively to negroes and Mexicans. No whites will be allowed in the pool at that time, and likewise the Mexican and colored bathers will not be allowed in the pool on the other day. Councilman McCain reported that he had counted sixty-seven Mexicans in the pool last Saturday afternoon.

Long Beach Police Advance Theory in Death Mystery.

Business Men Urge Combining of Bond Elections.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

LONG BEACH, June 5.—Miss Myrtle L. Gussul, Chief Deputy City Auditor, who was elected to the office of City Auditor at the recent Municipal Primary election, to take office Monday, July 7, was today discharged from her position by Auditor C. O. Boynton as a result of a controversy between the two regarding a vacation with pay sought by the Chief Deputy.

PARTLY SOLVE MYSTERY.

A slender clue was obtained today to the possible identity of the aged white-haired man found dead near Richmond, Calif., and believed at first to have been Walter C. Temple, a local politician. Local police today advanced the theory that developments may prove the body of the dead man to be young Temple's father, who was recently reported to be making his home near Richmond. The mystery of how young Temple's father came into his possession, however, remains totally unsolved.

WOULD COMBINE ELECTIONS.

R. A. Nickell, president, and Lynn W. Ballard, secretary, of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, appeared before the City Commissioners today and requested that the proposed city center bond issue of $1,500,000 be held July 1, the date of the 1920 state bond election, and in conjunction with the latter, if possible.

The legislative body did not take definite action on the request today, but the members expressed approval of the suggestion. A legal opinion will first be secured as to whether the action could be held in conjunction with the road bond proposition, and thus save the city the expense of a special election.

STEAL LIBERTY BOND.

Paskey burglars early today entered the home of E. E. Tinsler, Commissioner of Public Affairs, and stole a $100 Liberty bond and $116 in currency. Mr. and Mrs. Tinsler left last evening for an automobile trip to Yosemite Park, to be gone two weeks.

HAWKEYES TO PICNIC.

POMONA, June 5.—The annual picnic of the Pomona Valley Iowa Association, will be held in Garfield Park, Pomona, Saturday. Attorney John Beardsley, of Los Angeles, will deliver the principal address. There will be band music under the direction of Prof. Hile and a male quartette will sing. On the programme also there will be a picnic dinner with hot coffee furnished. The programme will open at 2 o'clock and will be in charge of W. W. Coates, president of the association.

RED CROSS ACTIVE.

PORTERVILLE, June 5.—Offices of the home service bureau of the local chapter of the American Red Cross have been opened in a centrally located business block, and one of the first to be established in Central California, will be in operation within the week. Lieutenant Lamkin, recently discharged from the aviation section, United States Signal Corps, has just received from the government a Curtiss machine which is now being assembled.

AERIAL TAXI.

PORTERVILLE, June 5.—Porterville's first aerial taxi service, and one of the first to be established in Central California, will be in operation within the week. Lieutenant Lamkin, recently discharged from the aviation section, United States Signal Corps, has just received from the government a Curtiss machine which is now being assembled.

"FAKE" ASPIRIN WAS TALCUM

Always Ask for Genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin"

If you see the "Bayer Cross" on the package you are sure you are not getting talcum powder. Millions of fraudulent Aspirin Tablets were recently sold throughout the country. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer, Manufacturer of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

TO REFORM REDONDO.

District Attorney Orders All Chance Games to Close.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

REDONDO BEACH, June 5.—Acting upon order of the District Attorney, Investigators Griffin and Richardson this morning closed all games of chance in this city. The various concessions along the waterfront were visited and all games inspected. The closing of what is considered games of chance will affect several concessionaires. The investigators gave notice of their intention to return in a short time to see that their orders are carried into effect.

City Attorney of Fullerton Resigns in Favor of Fighter.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

FULLERTON, June 5.—C. R. Allen, City Attorney for a year, has resigned in favor of Maj. E. J. Marks, who held the office from the time the city was incorporated in 1903 until he entered the Training School in 1917.

TO SELECT NEW.

RIVERSIDE, June 5.—To settle, if possible, on a site for the proposed tuberculosis hospital to be erected by Riverside county, the Supervisors of two counties will meet in session at Banning Friday morning.

Various sites offered in that county will be inspected by the officials, who will select the site to be offered for the construction of such an institution. It is possible that Ventura county may co-operate with the southern counties in the project.

A Safe Oil Investment

Organized by prominent and successful men of Texas to drill on private lands only—and on a percentage basis, the Clover Leaf Production Company offers the most attractive investment in the oil business. This company owns no leases—has no property to develop—does not drill for a money consideration—operating only on a basis of a per cent of production—and never less than 50 per cent. Only contracts for oil are made where the chances of getting oil are almost sure will be made. Already the company is drilling at Burkburnett and Iowa Park, Texas. Many more Burkburnett wells are being drilled and every well points to a large production. At Iowa Park the well is progressing well and these wells should be in soon and after the Clover Leaf Production Company secures production no more stock will be sold.

To give prospective purchasers an idea of the wonderful possibilities of the Clover Leaf Production Company, the company will sell 100 shares of its stock for $5.00 per share. You would have your original stock in the same chance of getting oil as the other 99 shares. A dry hole doesn't affect your chance for the company could drill from 15 to 20 wells on their original stock and one well would pay handsome dividends.

SOCIETY.

BY VIRGINIA WOODS.

Mrs. O. W. Childs could not
and a passport to France from American government and will be denied the fondly pleasure of witnessing marriage in Paris, of her Miss Emmeline Childs, to John Brand, Jr., of Richmond, Va.

Persons leaving here for New York,
who were planned to sail, Mr. and Mrs. Childs both had been given passports by the French government
yesterday, the refusal of the United States to give her one is a deviation from the usual custom.
Mrs. Childs, second times and bade
adieu as she sailed for overseas.
The wedding is scheduled for next month.

John Dwight (Emma Childs)
will arrive the latter part of this month for a visit to his mother, Mrs. Emmeline Childs, at her home on Adams street. Mrs. Dwight will be here three or four days and no doubt will be the cause for much entertaining.

By Mrs. Mudd.
Mrs. Seeley W. Mudd was a lunch-
on hostess yesterday, entertaining
a group of friends at the Los Angeles Country Club in honor of Mrs.
Robert McConnell (Caryl) Ester-
brook of New York and for Mrs.
Francis E. Shine of Bisbee, Ariz.
Mrs. McConnell has come here to live.

For Miss Mortenson.
Miss Margaret Mortenson of Chicago was the motif yesterday for a luncheon at which Miss Evangeline Grier of Buckingham road entertained at the Los Angeles Country Club.

Bride and Groom Here.
Capt. and Mrs. E. Courtney Ford
(formerly Mrs. Charles F. Overton) arrived here last evening from Santa Barbara and will be house guest of her sister, Mrs. James Albert Phillips of 263 Portland street for two or three days before motoring down to Coronado for a visit. The couple whose home is in San Francisco were only recently married.
Mrs. Phillips, who went up for the wedding, has just returned.

By Mrs. Herron.
Mrs. Vernon Campbell Herron
will entertain Saturday evening at a dancing party in the ballroom of the Hampden apartments in honor of the subdebutee set, most of whom are either students at Mariborough or the Wesleyan School for Girls. Two hundred guests are expected. Quite a large number of supper parties will follow the ball.
Among those entertaining will be Misses Kathryn and Margaret Burgner, who will have a company of thirty. Miss Florence Eleanor Herron will entertain thirty at supper. Others, who will have guests at midnight supper parties, include Misses Elizabeth Sherlock, Jeanet
Strodtford, Everell and Patricia Gustin, Velma Funk and Fred Pen-
well, Lester Griffith and Gordon Doolittle.

For New York Visitors.
Judge and Mrs. John Henry Judge of New York, who are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Jerome Toomey of Windsor Square, are inspiration for a large reception at which Mr. and Mrs. Toomey will entertain Tuesday evening, next.

Personals.
Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert S. Wright
and their daughter, Miss Elsie Wright, have moved into their former home at 2077 Wilshire boulevard.

Mrs. J. B. Winston has returned from San Francisco, where she has been visiting her son, Lieut. Jack Winston.

Mrs. Daniel Murphy, who has been visiting in New York, Chicago and other eastern cities is expected home the first of next week.

Hereford G. Fitch, a lawyer of Tacoma, Wash., with Mrs. Fitch and their two sons, are guests of his mother, Mrs. A. B. Fitch and his sisters, Misses Madeline and Elizabeth Fitch of Russell avenue, Hollywood.

CITY CLUB ELECTIONS.
The City Club directors yesterday
elected these officers: A. G. Bartlett, president; A. L. Stephens, vice-president; John S. Myers, treasurer;
Alvin G. West, secretary.

NO "ROW," BUT A FEW RIFTS.

Kuster Asserts no Symphony Orchestra Chiefs Quit.

Get Hancock's Resignation; Don't Act on it Yet.

Mrs. Albert Sherman Hoyt is the New President.

"There is no row among the directors of the Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra so there is no trouble to
be settled," Edmund G. Kuster, a director and spokesman for the orchestra, said yesterday afternoon following a meeting of the board at
the Alexandria.

Mr. Kuster, stated no resignations
have been received except that of F. W. Blanchard, and that came, he said, after the board informed Mr.
Blanchard that his position of manager had been done away with, and
his services were no longer required.
Despite Mr. Kuster's assertion
Clifford Lott, first vice-president of
the orchestra, who has been a director for the past five years, stated
last night that he has resigned. The apparent contradiction, Mr. Kuster
said, is explained by the fact that he expects Mr. Lott to rescind his action.

Mr. Lott said he did not believe
it to be in the best interests of
the orchestra to let personal matters
get into the newspapers. He said
he is in sympathy with the cause
but resigned for personal reasons.

G. Allan Hancock, former president of the organization, resigned
from the directorate May 24. His resignation was presented to the
board yesterday, and placed on the
table, presumably, it is reported, for
the purpose of having it reconsidered.

W. J. Dodd has also resigned
from the Executive Committee it
was announced yesterday.

NEW OFFICERS.
The following officers were elected: Mrs. Albert Sherman Hoyt,
president; Joseph J. Hauser, J. T.
Fitzgerald and Mrs. Oscar A. Trip-
pet, vice-presidents; Mrs. Dean
Mason, secretary; Mrs. A. C. Billocke,
treasurer.

In the place of a manager the
directorates named the following as
a Managing Committee: Mrs. Albert
Sherman Hoyt, Mrs. H. W. R. Strong,
Mrs. Irving Ingerham, John G. Mott
and Edmund G. Kuster.

The office of the orchestra will be
moved from Blanchard Hall to the Citizens' National Bank Building, it
was announced. It is presumed, Mr.
Kuster said, there will be no
change in the personnel of the orchestra, nor in the clerical force.

Mr. Lott presided at the meeting
yesterday, and both Mr. and Mr.
Kuster said that perfect harmony
exists among the remaining directors.

NEXT YEAR'S PROGRAMME.
The meeting yesterday was an organization meeting of the board for
the arrangement of a programme
for the ensuing year. The next season of concerts will be the twenty-third without a break, and the
new board of directors plans to
make the forthcoming season the
best that the orchestra has enjoyed.
It is planned to have more concerts, some in the day and others
in the evening, and to give a concert every week of the year, the
musicians being placed on a salary
basis. They will be expected to play at open air concerts and where-
ever the management committee
decided, instead of giving six concerts, as has been the custom.

WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY LADY JANE.

Catholic Women's Club.
Four hundred attended the annual
luncheon of the Catholic Women's Club, yesterday, at the Alexandria.
Mrs. Edward G. Higgins, president,
addressed the club, reviewing its
activities through a brief but active
career, and expressing the hope that
the next annual luncheon will be
at the club's proposed new home.
There is considerable opposition
from certain club factions, but the
majority look forward to an appropriate clubhouse, in the near future,
it is said.

Mrs. M. J. McGarry was chairman
of an elaborate programme which
followed the elaborately-appointed
luncheon. Lieut. James Patten of
the Eleventh Aero Squadron, who is
a Los Angeles man, with eighteen
months' overseas experience, spoke
of his activities in day, and Lieut. Patten has a rare gift of personal expression with modesty, and
wholly without the element of ego-
tism which creeps into talks formal
and informal, about war experiences.
He told of the specific purposes of
the squadron, its aims, practical and
strategic. Other speakers were Mrs.
Herbert A. Cable, State secretary of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, who spoke on club federation; Mrs. Matthew S. Robertson,
who spoke on "Club Women of Today;" Mrs. J. T. Anderson, chairman of the Woman's Council of Community Service; Mary Work-
man, president of the Brownson
House; Mrs. E. R. Brainerd, State
chairman of the Women's National Liberty Loan Committee, who spoke
on some achievements of women in
war service, and Mrs. Evelyn E. Ex-
ley, newly-elected president of the district federation. Glycerine Kid-
der sang and there was assembly
singing of the national anthem.

Friday Morning Club.
The annual election of the Friday
Morning Club will take place today,
the polls opening at 9 a.m. There
is no competition against Mrs. O.
Shepherd Barnum for president, nor
against Mrs. J. F. Sartori for first
vice-president. Mrs. J. Wells Smith
would seem to be the assured second
vice-president. Mrs. Smith has been the chairman of the Book Committee for three years, bringing to
the club its ideal for the progressive in literature and drama. As the club stands not only for efficiency in
women, but for the highest type of
femininity in its various forms, there
is practically no opposition.

Mrs. Arthur Wier is candidate for treasurer. Mrs. Wier was in charge
of three Liberty Loans for the club,
and has therefore a record for as-
sistances and organizing capability.
Stant-Wright Macdonald, school
originator of the Synchronist school
of painting, is to be the speaker at
the club this morning. His subject will be "The Relationship of Music to Painting."

resignation was presented to the
board yesterday, and placed on the
table, presumably, it is reported, for
the purpose of having it recon-
sidered.

W. J. Dodd has also resigned
from the Executive Committee it
was announced yesterday.

NEW OFFICERS.
The following officers were elect-
ed: Mrs. Albert Sherman Hoyt,
president; Joseph J. Hauser, J. T.
Fitzgerald and Mrs. Oscar A. Trip-
pet, vice-presidents; Mrs. Dean
Mason, secretary; Mrs. A. C. Billocke,
treasurer.

In the place of a manager the
directorates named the following as
a Managing Committee: Mrs. Albert
Sherman Hoyt, Mrs. H. W. R. Strong,
Mrs. Irving Ingerham, John G. Mott
and Edmund G. Kuster.

The office of the orchestra will be
moved from Blanchard Hall to the Citizens' National Bank Building, it
was announced. It is presumed, Mr.
Kuster said, there will be no
change in the personnel of the orchestra, nor in the clerical force.

Mr. Lott presided at the meeting
yesterday, and both Mr. and Mr.
Kuster said that perfect harmony
exists among the remaining directors.

NEXT YEAR'S PROGRAMME.
The meeting yesterday was an organization meeting of the board for
the arrangement of a programme
for the ensuing year. The next
season of concerts will be the twenty-third without a break, and the
new board of directors plans to
make the forthcoming season the
best that the orchestra has enjoyed.
It is planned to have more concerts, some in the day and others
in the evening, and to give a concert every week of the year, the
musicians being placed on a salary
basis. They will be expected to
play at open air concerts and where-
ever the management committee
decided, instead of giving six concerts, as has been the custom.

Catholic Women's Club.
Four hundred attended the annual
luncheon of the Catholic Women's Club, yesterday, at the Alexandria.
Mrs. Edward G. Higgins, president,
addressed the club, reviewing its
activities through a brief but active
career, and expressing the hope that
the next annual luncheon will be
at the club's proposed new home.
There is considerable opposition
from certain club factions, but the
majority look forward to an appropriate clubhouse, in the near future,
it is said.

Mrs. M. J. McGarry was chairman
of an elaborate programme which
followed the elaborately-appointed
luncheon. Lieut. James Patten of
the Eleventh Aero Squadron, who is
a Los Angeles man, with eighteen
months' overseas experience, spoke
of his activities in day, and Lieut. Patten has a rare gift of personal expression with modesty, and
wholly without the element of ego-
tism which creeps into talks formal
and informal, about war experiences.
He told of the specific purposes of
the squadron, its aims, practical and
strategic. Other speakers were Mrs.
Herbert A. Cable, State secretary of
the General Federation of Women's Clubs, who spoke on club federation; Mrs. Matthew S. Robertson,
who spoke on "Club Women of Today;" Mrs. J. T. Anderson, chair-
man of the Woman's Council of Community Service; Mary Work-
man, president of the Brownson
House; Mrs. E. R. Brainerd, State
chairman of the Women's National Liberty Loan Committee, who spoke
on some achievements of women in
war service, and Mrs. Evelyn E. Ex-
ley, newly-elected president of the district federation. Glycerine Kid-
der sang and there was assembly
singing of the national anthem.

Friday Morning Club.
The annual election of the Friday
Morning Club will take place today,
the polls opening at 9 a.m. There
is no competition against Mrs. O.
Shepherd Barnum for president, nor
against Mrs. J. F. Sartori for first
vice-president. Mrs. J. Wells Smith
would seem to be the assured second
vice-president. Mrs. Smith has been the chairman of the Book Committee for three years, bringing to
the club its ideal for the progressive in literature and drama. As the
club stands not only for efficiency in
women, but for the highest type of
femininity in its various forms, there
is practically no opposition.

Mrs. Arthur Wier is candidate for
treasurer. Mrs. Wier was in charge
of three Liberty Loans for the club,
and has therefore a record for as-
sistances and organizing capability.
Stant-Wright Macdonald, school
originator of the Synchronist school
of painting, is to be the speaker at
the club this morning. His subject will be "The Relationship of Music to Painting."

NO "ROW," BUT A FEW RIFTS.

Kuster Asserts no Symphony Orchestra Chiefs Quit.

Get Hancock's Resignation; Don't Act on it Yet.

Mrs. Albert Sherman Hoyt is the New President.

"There is no row among the directors of the Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra so there is no trouble to
be settled," Edmund G. Kuster, a
director and spokesman for the orchestra, said yesterday afternoon following a meeting of the board at
the Alexandria.

Mr. Kuster, stated no resignations
have been received except that of
F. W. Blanchard, and that came, he
said, after the board informed Mr.
Blanchard that his position of manager had been done away with, and
his services were no longer required.
Despite Mr. Kuster's assertion
Clifford Lott, first vice-president of
the orchestra, who has been a director for the past five years, stated
last night that he has resigned. The
apparent contradiction, Mr. Kuster
said, is explained by the fact that he expects Mr. Lott to rescind his
action.

Mr. Lott said he did not believe
it to be in the best interests of
the orchestra to let personal matters
get into the newspapers. He said
he is in sympathy with the cause
but resigned for personal reasons.

G. Allan Hancock, former president of the organization, resigned
from the directorate May 24. His
resignation was presented to the
board yesterday, and placed on the
table, presumably, it is reported, for

JUNE DAY BRIDES.

By Grace Kingsley.

The Right, these June days, is all aflutter with the wedding. Two screen favorites have been wed, and the thrilling announcement is made of the engagement of John Emerson and Anita Loos, those Gold Dust twins of the Lasky scenario department, among the best known writers for the screen.

The wedding of those of Alice Brady, daughter of William A. Brady, well-known producer, to James I. Criss, on May 29, at the home of the bridegroom in New York, and of Mollie King, formerly a screen star, now a member of the "Good Morning, Judge" company, who married Kenneth D. Alexander, well known in horse racing circles, last week to New York.

Miss Loos and Mr. Emerson are to be married this summer according to announcement which has just reached us, though the exact date is not yet set. The pair have already leased a house at Great Neck, L. I. Miss Loos is now living there with Frances Marion, formerly scenario writer for Mary Pickford.

There is an amusing little incident in relation to Alice Brady's wedding—an incident that was also an accident, though nobody got hurt. In short, when an automobile which Alice Brady was operating on location during a scene in her forthcoming picture, "The Bride of the Night," crashed through the fence of a magnificent Tarrytown estate, it disturbed the honeymoon of a wealthy New Yorker and his bride, also ruined several hundred feet of good film. The accident occurred just a day or two before Miss Brady's marriage to Mr. Criss, and although it was not at that time known that Miss Brady was contemplating marriage, Director Webb and his friends now attribute her prospective bride crashing through the stone fence of an estate where another bride was spending the first few days of her honeymoon to the machine which was used in the scene was a high-power roadster of international fame. The cameras were set to take in a portion of the State highway leading past the New Yorker's country estate. When Director Webb shouted "Camera!" Miss Brady eased in the clutch and the machine shot ahead. Just as it neared a curve in the road where the scene was to end, the car swerved to the right and crashed through the wall. Strangely enough, Miss Brady was not thrown from the seat. A treaty of peace was immediately signed between the honeymooners and the invading party and reparation for damages was one of the fourteen points. Also it is said Miss Brady confided to the bride her own happy hopes, which naturally made it more easy to re-establish friendly relations.

He Said Something. Charlie Chaplin says that anyhow there's one thing about young lovers sailing through the clouds together in airplane—the noise of the motor is in the air—the sound of the ukulele!

Mae Murray Awaits Storm. Despite the fact Mae Murray has been negotiating with a picture company, it will be some time before we see her on the screen again. The fact is, the storm hovers over the home of Miss Murray, who in private life is Mrs. Robert Z. Leonard, wife of director Robert Leonard.

The Leonards have a country home in New York, and Miss Murray has retired there for the present.

Ethel Clayton to Return. Following a several months' trip in the Orient, spent mostly in Japan, it is expected that Ethel Clayton will return to this city next week to resume work with Famous Players-Lasky Corporation.

Since Clayton took the trip following a long hard year, during which constant mourning for the husband who died suddenly a few weeks before she married him, together with constant work for the screen, conspired to wear her spirit and body. She is said to be now in excellent health.

Gareth Hughes Engaged. Gareth Hughes, who appeared here under direction of Richard Ordynski in "Everyman," has signed up with Joseph M. Schenck to play opposite Norma Talmadge in the star's new picture, "By Right of Conquest."

Inspiration for Tom Mix. Gosh darn it! Tom Mix isn't an artistic guy? He's going away on a short vacation following the completion of "High Speed," and he says that during the time he's in broncos and playing pinhole, he'll be just plumb full of artistic endeavor, framing up his next Fox picture.

Lo Saint to Vacation. By the way, speaking of vacations, Edward Lo Saint, Milt's director, is going to have a vacation, too. He will take four weeks' rest and will visit his old home in Cincinnati. His wife, who used to be known on the screen as Stella Rasetti, but who has become her husband's assistant director, sticks to the "Lo Saint" name.

Peggy May, Hawthorn Star. There's a brand new beautiful star in Los Angeles, and so far not a word has been printed about her. She has been kept mysteriously and interestingly dark as it were. The newest lumina in the picture business is an English musical comedienne, and her name is Peggy May.

Miss May, it is said, is shortly to begin work at the Brunton studios on a story by a well-known scenario writer. She is said to be one of the most beautiful girls the English stage has produced, and to be as clever as beautiful. She arrived in this country only a few weeks ago, and has not yet learned to say "I guess" and "two bits."

Sid Chaplin Buys Again. Just as if plumping his wings for a picture star flight weren't enough for Sid Chaplin, now he's gone and bought six airplanes, which makes him a flying star in the world. Mr. Chaplin's order was placed with the Curtiss Aeroplane and Motor Corporation in New York for three of the new three-passenger Oriole and three flying boats of the "Sea" make.

The flyers are to be used in the passenger service shortly to be operated between here and Catalina. Mr. Chaplin is going to open a school for aviators here. He is expected to return to Los Angeles next week.

Nothing but the Truth. As the press agent tells it, "Catherine Curtis, who plays the character of 'Nanny Lane,' in Harold Bell Wright's 'The Shepherd of the Hills,' which starts on its fifth week at Quinn's Rialto Sunday, is planning to spend two months' vacation in the Oak Mountains, where the pictures were filmed. Miss Curtis became infatuated with the mountains during her work there, and now that hot weather seems to have control, she is going to seek refuge in the shady hills of the Oak Mountains."

Wants to Know, Y'know. Speaking of the airplane service to Catalina, Charlie Fuld wants to know who will have the sailing-hour concessions along the way. Also, how often the peasant boy will repeat.

Priscilla is Wasting no Time. While she is convalescing from her recent serious attack of double pneumonia, Priscilla Dean is writing a scenario, which she plans to use as her next starring vehicle, provided it meets with the approval of the Universal executive and her director. The battery of physicians that have been attending the star have agreed that she can start on the production of a new photograph. In the meantime, she is writing several scenes a day for a new crook melodrama which she believes will outshine any other picture she has ever underwritten. And the odd part of it is, Priscilla says she dreamed last night during her delirium that when she came into her right mind and recollected it, she found

STAR OF "THIRD DEGREE" ASKS COAST NAVAL HELP.

Picture Version Coming to the Kinema.

Weaver in Washington Confers with Daniels. Secretary Expects to Visit California in August. Permanent Organization of Slope Men in Congress.

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—"Los Angeles and California will do everything in their power to secure the necessary appropriations to maintain naval bases on the Pacific coast of caring for one-half the great fleet of the United States."

In these words Sylvester L. Weaver, vice-president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, indicated to Secretary Daniels of the navy this morning just what Los Angeles wants to see—one-half of the fleet maintained on the Pacific Coast at all times.

Mr. Weaver called on Secretary Daniels to urge on him the invitation already extended by the chamber to the Secretary to be its guest several days while on his Pacific Coast trip. The Secretary gladly accepted and said that as near as could be planned now his visit would be in August.

In view of appropriations and other naval legislation now before Congress and also because of some doubt as to the exact date of signing the peace treaty the Secretary said he could not fix a precise date, but that it would be some time in August.

While this, too, is more or less dependent on the signing of the peace treaty it is probable the fleet of dreadnaughts will arrive on the Pacific side about the time of the Secretary's visit. As the squadron's visit to the west coast is to be in celebration of the signing of the treaty, it is naturally dependent on the activities of the Germans at Versailles, but the plans are now all being made to have the visit of the fleet and the inspection of the coast naval base cities by Mr. Daniels coincide.

Mr. Weaver, who left tonight for New York to attend a commercial conference in the Adlon-Hotel, a representative of the chamber, has passed much of his time while in Washington with members of the various delegations in Congress from the Coast States and has urged the organization of the delegations from California, Oregon and Washington into one compact Pacific Coast body to be made permanent that the Coast may secure what it is entitled to in legislative action and executive direction.

COAST PREPAREDNESS. One of the things that has most interested him is the necessity of preparing the coast, from the Canadian border to the Mexican line, with enough navy yards, dry docks, submarine and destroyer bases properly equipped to maintain one-half the fleet of the United States.

The Panama Canal was dug," said Mr. Weaver, "to permit the division of the fleet into equal parts and give the Pacific equal protection with the Atlantic Coast. Our shore line is as long and our possessions as valuable to the United States as are those of the eastern coast line."

While the Navy Department advises that it is willing now to place half the fighting craft of the navy in the western ocean there are not sufficient facilities there to care for the various types of vessels; and, under the circumstances, the West Coast must be content with an occasional visit of a fighting squadron detached from the Atlantic fleet and sent through the canal.

"I hope Congress will appropriate the money to make possible an early date the permanent maintenance on the Pacific Coast of one-half the fleet; and, wherever I have had a chance, I have urged that the Senators and Congressmen from the coast and the West lead this fight to a successful finish."

Congressman Osborne presented Mr. Weaver's Secretary Daniels and to some of the other chief officials in the State, Interior and War departments.

ARREST QUACK AGAIN. Educated Chinese "Doctor" Makes Serious Extortion Charge. For the second time within twenty-four hours, Wang Quack, a Chinese doctor, with offices at 2909 South Main street, was taken into custody, last night, by Inspector Jack O'Connell, on charges of practicing without a license, in violation of Section 17 of the Medical Practice Act.

Quack appeared before Police Judge Frederickson, yesterday afternoon, on the first charge resulting from his arrest late Wednesday night, but pleaded not guilty and demanded a jury trial. He is being prosecuted by State Attorney Castellano, who stated that a clean-up of the Chinese and Japanese quack doctors was to be made and that the arrest of Quack was but preliminary to many others.

Quack is considered one of the best-educated Chinese in the city, having graduated from the Polytechnic High School and the University of Southern California. At Central Station, Quack stated that he had recently been approached by two men, who represented themselves as inspectors for the medical examiners from the northern district, who told him that he would pay them $150 they would see to it that he was not molested. That his story is believed, and that a former inspector for the board is now under suspicion, was stated last night by O'Connell and Castellano, who will today take Quack before Dist. Atty. Woolf. In an effort to have the grand jury investigate the charges.

PROPOSE LOS ANGELES AS CONVENTION CITY.

PURCHASING AGENTS INVITE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION TO MEET HERE.

A resolution calling for the revival of the movement to make Los Angeles the "Convention City" of the Pacific Coast, and outlining the methods of procedure to bring it about, was adopted at the meeting of the purchasing agents of Los Angeles last night at Christopher's.

Copies of the resolution were sent to every organization having an invitation to the national conventions.

The Purchasing Agents Association of Los Angeles has issued an invitation to the National Association of Purchasing Agents to hold its annual convention in Los Angeles in 1926.

"Los Angeles is the most beautiful spot of America, and offers other cities in the country no wealth of natural or climatic attractions," read the text of the invitation to the national body.

SOLVE MYSTERY MAKE ANOTHER

Richmond, many hundred miles from the nearest Salt Lake road station. Another one of the strange features of the case. He was due to arrive at the Hotel Keller, New York, May 25, where he intended to wait until the steamer sailed, and his friends to arrive there alarmed his father and nephew here, who placed advertisements containing his photograph in a number of newspapers. The next day his missing was reported after the police at Richmond were assured by Mrs. Wesver Long Beach that the description they sent showed that the body was his. She said that the body on, the attention of the Richmond police was called to the advertisement containing a photograph

Mr. Hartman. As the photograph was evidently that of the dead man, the police notified Mr. Kelbert. Mrs. Kelbert, started at once for Richmond to ascertain if the man there was the body of the uncle. She wired her husband yesterday that the body was that of her husband. She did not say whether or not Mr. Kelbert was coming from violence or if the man was an explanation for his presence in Richmond.

Mr. Hartman's body will be brought back to Los Angeles tomorrow. John Kelbert, husband of the dead man's niece, left last night to assist his wife in bringing her uncle's remains.

were, the three of us, in a room in the middle of the night. I was helpless because I feared him. He was so strong and in such a ugly mood," she said.
"But I determined to make my baby. I have been supporting my baby by my own work last year and could never do that to the end of my life. He was so good. My people were against the divorce because they did not know it and did not know of that state at night. But I'm glad it's started. I'm going through with this man. The complaint also alleged that in February 1918, in the city of New Orleans, La., at 1105 East boulevard, Elmer M. Yelton struck her with his hands and later locked her up in a room over night. That he heaped upon her."

Postoffice Department Rules Against Excess Loss Claims.

Postmaster Brown received warning from Third Assistant Postmaster-General, Dockery yesterday that indemnity claims for lost articles lost, rifed or damaged by the mails will not be allowed if the government is able to show that excessive valuation was placed upon the packages at the time of mailing.

It is stated that claimants are entitled to the entire amount of indemnity prescribed, in accordance with the insurance fee paid, up to the actual value of the article insured, or equal to the indemnity limit.

It is now possible, Postmaster Brown announces, to send foodstuffs to relatives in Italy in parcel packages not exceeding 40 pounds in weight. The ruling of Otto Praeger, Second Assistant Postmaster-General, is to the effect that a total of not more than 100 pounds of foodstuffs may be sent to one address in Italy.

Postmaster Brown made this announcement yesterday that the new postoffice at Huntington in Fremont county, was opened June 1. Mrs. Mary E. Howell has been commissioned as fourth-class postmistress at that place, and Mrs. Edna C. Gerberville, Mrs. Jennie E. Lahn becomes postmaster at Lodi.

JUST A SOUVENIR.

Court Imposes Alimony as Memento of Wedding.

Ben Westland of San Francisco wrote his wife, Betty Westland, that he was granted a divorce by the court. He left yesterday on the ground of "irreconcilable differences."

"If I acted differently at times, it was just thoughtlessness on my part and thoughtlessness I couldn't seem to overcome. I hope that you will regret as much as you can the fact that I didn't act more toward you. I am sure only the time we were happy together. I wish all the happiness in the world, perhaps sometime I can even think for all you did for me. We were together."

Westland then remarked that the defendant "apparently does not care for his wife so I will add a reminder that he may remember I was once married."

MARRIAGE ILLEGAL.

Two Hundred Greek Dancing Girls

—and way in the back row one slender, graceful, dark-eyed beauty fresh from high school. Boy! Naturally the Director's keen eyes picked her out and so began the career of a motion-picture star whose name you will never guess until you have read:—

Yesterdays of Vitagraph

IN this article in Photoplay for July Commodore J. Stuart Blackton tells the fascinating story of the first steps into screenland of a host of your favorites.

He walked out and left them flat, the circus audience that tittered at his first announcement, and today he is knocking sophisticated roof garden crowds cold with the same homely humor. Who? Will Rogers. And there's a right smart piece about Will and his ropes in this same Photoplay book for July.

Do you know that you've been in the motion-picture business for most a year now? We mean you.

Do you believe that a self made monkey is worth $100 a day?

Would you find out beforehand the worthwhile pictures of the minute?

The answer to all these questions is back of the blue-eyed girl on the cover of Photoplay Magazine for July. It's the big feature of your dealer's stand tonight.

HOME MAY MAKE DECISION TODAY

"Nothing to Say" Regarding Police Force Changes.

Mayor-elect is Going Away from Office Seekers.

Lusty Fight Expected Over Council Headship.

Captain of Detectives George K. Home named by Mayor-elect Snyder as the next Chief of Police, late yesterday afternoon announced that he would give the matter forty-eight hours of thought before he decides.

"I have nothing to say about any possible changes in the police department in the event that I take the appointment," he added.

Mayor-elect Snyder and Mrs. Snyder will leave today by automobile for a trip to their ranch at Modesto. Mr. Snyder announced yesterday that he expects to spend ten or twelve days there to enjoy rest and recreation.

The Mayor-elect will return about two weeks before he is to assume office. During that two weeks it is to be expected he will hold a series of conferences with his advisers regarding changes in the appointive offices.

Many old-time politicians were in evidence in the City Hall corridors yesterday, and the favorite pastime was discussion of probable appointees.

FOUR IN COMPETITION.

Yesterday's developments brought forth the fact that there are likely to be four candidates for the presidency of the City Council. Bert L. Farmer, now president, again seeks the honor. He was endorsed by the Association for the Betterment of Public Service, and five other men who received this endorsement were elected to the Council. It is possible that they may combine and again make Mr. Farmer head of the Council.

Boyle Workman is also a candidate and it now appears that the main contest will be between these two men. Ralph Criswell and A. P. Fleming are also discussed as prospective presidential material.

Commissioner-elect stated yesterday that there will be no caucus this week.

City Hall gossipers yesterday declared that F. W. Blanchard, who was campaign manager for Mr. Snyder, will be made head of the Harbor Commission, and that Dr. Randolph W. Hill will be a member of the board. John T. Gaffey, of San Pedro is mentioned as possibly the other member of this board, although it was said that Capt. Louis Hansen, of the harbor district, had assurance that he could go on this board if he so desired.

The gossip on personnel of the Fire Commission is that A. F. Frankenstein, former member, who resigned during the mayoralty campaign, will again become a member, and that the other members will be George M. Babcock, secretary of Business Men's Co-operative Association.

WILL WILDE GO?

Although the present term of City Clerk Wilde extends for a year and a half yet, there was discussion among the political "wise ones" yesterday over the prospect of a change in that office. The names of Robert E. Dominguez, chief deputy, and David M. Carroll, Councilman-elect, were especially discussed as possibilities for this appointment, should Mr. Wilde retire.

Another subject of discussion was the return of A. S. Jubb as harbor engineer, which these same "wise ones" declare will become a fact.

Several members of the City Council are supporting the candidacy of Dr. Arthur D. Houghton for police surgeon, and it appears probable he will be the Council's selection. The fact that Dr. Houghton was assistant police surgeon when he resigned to go into military service is mentioned as a factor working in his favor for appointment to the higher position.

FOR SCHOOL BOARD HEAD.

Charles J. McCormick, re-elected as a member of the Board of Education last Tuesday, with the highest vote of any other candidate for a position on the board, was possibly the consensus of opinion around the Board of Education office, yesterday, that Mr. McCormick would be chosen as the head of the new board.

Mr. McCormick is the oldest member on the board in point of service, and has made many friends among the other members. It was the consensus of opinion around the Board of Education office, yesterday, that Mr. McCormick would be chosen as the head of the new

GOSH! WHISKY GOES BEGGING.

Customs Collector has Eight Lots and no Buyers, He Reports.

There is no demand for whisky in Southern California, according to Collector of Customs Elliott, who reported yesterday that he has eight lots of whisky and other ardent spirits, at San Diego. The customs officials there seized the stuff, including quantities of whisky, Mexican mesquite, tequila, port wine and beer, for being brought into the country without payment of the duty.

It was one of the conditions of the sale that the government must bring at least the amount of the government bonds, which it is believed, but no bids were received, and the hot and rebellious stuff remains in the hands of the government.

Mayor-elect Snyder may not be able to reorganize the harbor department for a year or two, if reports from the harbor district are true. Don Fugitt, port warden, is authorized for a statement that members of the Harbor Commission will not resign until their terms of office expire. The Harbor Commission is the only member of the commission who draws a salary. Thomas Hughes will not tender his resignation to Mayor Snyder, according to the port warden, who is a close friend of Mayor Woodman, and Commissioner Casey is in South America on a leave of absence.

With the action of the port warden and port pilots, most of the harbor employees are under civil service. This includes Traffic Manager Clarence Matson. The only way he could be removed would be to abolish his office, it has been pointed out by those identified with the harbor department. The Snyder supporters in the harbor district made much capital over the probability of a reorganization of the traffic department of the Harbor Commission.

OFFICIAL CANVASS OF BALLOTS ENDS TODAY.

ONLY FEW CHANGES IN COUNT. CITY ATTORNEY SAYS ONLY REAL VOTES COUNT.

The City Council spent all day yesterday in making the official canvass of election returns, and held a session last night to continue the work. The final official figures will be completed this forenoon.

During the day there were several minor changes effected in the vote on Councilmen, but these did not make any changes in the results previously announced.

In regard to the question of counting blank ballots, the board of election returns, that were deposited in the ballot boxes without their being marked, the City Attorney yesterday said that they should not be considered as votes cast.

Ballots which have been given to the voters and returned by them without being voted, should be placed in the category of spoiled ballots, and the number of votes cast as shown on the back page of the tally list should not include the number of spoiled or unused ballots. In all cases, such total number of votes cast as shown on the back of the tally list should conform to the number shown upon the first page of the tally list in the ballot statement, after the words: "The number of official ballots voted were."

MANY ATTEND SCHOOL.

Interdenominational Mission Programme Attracts Hundreds.

Between 600 and 700 Bible students are registered at the Interdenominational School of Mission Study now in progress at the First Congregational Church. The sessions opened Monday and will continue until tonight.

Mrs. H. L. Hill, of New York, is lecturing on home missions, her subject being "Christian Americanization." Mrs. A. Rosenberger, instructor in foreign missions, is speaking on "A Crusade in Compression." Dr. James A. Francis, pastor of the First Baptist Church, is conducting the course in Bible study.

How to Teach Missions in the Sunday School is being led by Mrs. E. E. Bamford, and Mrs. A. W. Rider is teaching mission study methods. Mrs. Leonard Merrill and Miss Hazel Thomas are giving practical field demonstrations in foreign missionary work.

AD MEN GOING NORTH.

Los Angeles Delegation Leaves Tonight for Portland.

Headed by President Harry S. Carroll, a delegation of fifteen members of the Los Angeles Advertising Club will leave tonight at 7:30 o'clock from the Southern Pacific for Portland, to attend the annual convention of the Associated Advertisers of the Pacific Coast.

Members are taking their wives with them as the annual Rose Festival will be held during the last days of the advertising men's convention. They will take with them a handsome loving cup, offered to the club by the Pacific Coast making the best showing of war work during the past year.

Los Angeles will have a display in the community advertising exhibit, in charge of Morris M. Rathbun, head of the publicity department of the Chamber of Commerce.

In the party are: President Harry S. Carroll, wife and daughter; Secretary C. M. C. Raymond, wife and son; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilkins, Walter B. Wilson, William C. Kottmann, Jack Baum, George F. Steers, Victor Hecht, Morris M. Rathbun, Fred W. Kellogg, G. Herb Palin, W. R. Baranor.

ORATES BY HIMSELF.

Los Angeles Boy Wins Prize When Competitors Don't Appear.

Los Angeles Junior College, represented by Alva Hubbard, yesterday won the annual Southern California Junior College Oratorical Contest. The candidates of the other schools, which included Fullerton, Hollywood, San Diego and Santa Barbara, failed to show up. Hubbard gave his oration, "Facing the Twentieth Century." The judges, after a short deliberation, decided that Hubbard had won the $10 gold piece put up as a prize and it was presented to him. The judges were Judge Wall, of the University of Southern California Law School; Dr. Allison Gaw, of the University of Southern California English Department, and Miss Meyers, Dean of Women of Occidental College. They gave Hubbard a score of 15 per cent, and stated afterward that the speech showed great thought and was very worthy of the prize awarded.

OIL MAN IS BETTER.

Angelino Pioneer, Who Brought in Puente Field, Shows Improvement.

William R. Rowland, president of the Puente Oil Company, who has been ill at his home, 805 South Bonita street, was reported, yesterday, as being much improved.

Mr. Rowland, a pioneer of Los Angeles, is one of Southern California's most widely known oil men, having brought in the first oil well in the Puente field.
